

Job Role - Principal Designer / CDM Consultant – Wales & the South West

RPA are looking to further enhance our PD and CDM Consultancy offering to clients and require a motivated, ambitious individual to drive the company's aspirations to develop this side of the business.

About RPA

Established in 1992, with over 25 years' experience, we are a leading medium-sized RICS accredited firm of Quantity Surveyors and Project Managers that operate throughout the United Kingdom for a range of national and regional companies.

We are widely recognised as an exciting and dynamic company with a track record of success. We strongly believe in developing and nurturing talent to produce industry leading services.

About the opportunity

RPA currently services a large number of clients who require Principal Designer and CDM Consultancy services. We currently act as PD across a number of sectors, including; residential, engineering, remediation and commercial.

To this end, we are looking to work with you to;

- take ownership and ensure our current Principal Designer appointments are serviced correctly, ensuring we are fulfilling our role and allocated staff are undertaking their duties correctly;
- further develop and expand the current service offered, and;
- grow this exciting area of the business to take advantage of what we deem as a rapidly increasing area of demand.

Job Candidate

The Ideal candidate for this role would have:

- an aspiration to work with us to develop and grow this area of expertise
- an in depth knowledge of CDM 2015 regulatory requirements
- a minimum of 3-5 years' experience undertaking PD / CDM services within the construction industry
- some, or all of the following;
 - Membership of a Professional Institution (e.g. ICE, IstructE, RIBA, CIOB, RICS)
 - I or C MaPS Membership of the Association for Project Safety
 - NEBOSH Construction Certificate Qualification
- Full, Clean UK Driving License.

Further Details

RPA are offering an attractive and competitive remuneration package, fully negotiable depending on level of experience and qualifications of the candidate.

If the above is something that you feel you could assist us in then we would love to hear from you. Please feel free to either email a copy of your CV to Leanne.Coombes@rpagroup.co.uk or if you would like an informal chat to discuss the potential opportunity then please contact Tudor.Butler@rpagroup.co.uk to arrange.
